The Festival is opened to all the Theatre/Drama Schools and Academies (Prose Theatre, Musical, Clownish, Dance/Ballet Theatre, Popular Theatre, Gestural Theatre, Experimental Theatre and Figure Theatre). The Festival is a biennial competition with purpose is to compare various Theatre/Teaching methodologies.

The Organization is not responsible for scripts, music, and stage performances which may be in any way offensive with reference to any person living or passed away, as prescribed by law.

Any legal obligation concerning copyright is responsibility of the competitors. The Organization, therefore, cannot be held responsible.

There are not any fees required to join the competition.

During the contest, the Organization will provide free accommodation and meal for max 10 members (included maximum two Technicians, Director, Manager etc.) for a max of 3 nights.

Anyway, if the participants wish to arrive before Festival period, the Organization will help to find cheap accommodation and restaurants.

By signing this Form the Academy/School authorizes any possible filming or radio and/or TV broadcasting of its own show and any promotional circulation and/or advertising campaign concerning.

The Organization, supervised by the Legge 180 Theatre Company and Accademia Teatrale di Roma Sofia Amendolea, will ensure the presence of a competent Jury.

On the Award Night the Golden Gemini Prize will be awarded to: Best Performance, Best Direction, Best Choreography, Best Actress, Best Actor. In addition, the Organization will award the Sofia Amendolea Prize to the student or Group who will excel in determination and interpretative strength.

The selected productions are required to be One-Act (maximum 70 minutes) to avoid to be excluded from the competition.

The competing shows have to be performed exclusively by the students or graduated students of the School/University/Academy. School directors, teachers, and any person external of the school can not perform but they can only deal with stage direction, choreography, art direction, costumes and music.
